

Cookie policy

The Digital Glass uses cookies on their website. By using the website, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third-parties we may partner with may use cookies on the website, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the website or a third-party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the website more useful to you.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies.

How The Digital Glass uses cookies

When you use and access the website, we may place a number of cookies files in your web browser. We use cookies for the following purposes:

- to enable certain functions of the website;
- to provide analytics;
- to store your preferences;
- to enable advertisements delivery, including behavioural advertising.

We use both session and persistent cookies and we use different types of cookies to run the website:

Necessary cookies

We may use necessary cookies to authenticate users and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts. Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. Necessary cookies are needed in order for a website to function properly.

Statistic cookies

Statistic cookies help website owners to understand how visitors interact with websites by anonymously collecting and reporting information.

Third-party cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may also use various third-parties cookies to report usage statistics of the website, deliver advertisements on and through the website.

Your choices regarding cookies

If you would like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser.

However, please note that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features on the website, store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly.
